His Greeting.

A Boston newspaper reports an amusing scene in an open horse car. The conductor had collected his fares and returned to his station upon the rear platform when one of the passengers left his seat and took another nearer the front.

The conductor, meantime, was presumably on the lookout for passengers, and when his gaze reverted to the car he saw, as he thought, a new man in one of the forward seats. He proceeded at once to collect the fare and tapped the gentleman courteously on the shoulder.

"This is a one cent piece," said the official.

"Yes," answered the passenger, "I know it. I paid my fare when I was in the other seat. This time I supposed you were taking up a collection."

The Conductor "took a hand."

Dr. J. Conneau, author of a work entitled "Certain Signs of Death," says that he can cite ninety-six well authenticated cases where persons were buried alive by mistake. Here is one. A French army officer, on Aug. 30, 1846, was buried alive in Saintes with military honors. The passing salute awoke him from apparent death. He knocked upon the lid of the coffin, w^{as} heard and set at liberty. He marched back to the house of mourning at the head of the detachment that had been detailed to escort his remains to the tomb.

A peddler in Lewiston, Me., has hit upon a new way of earning a living. He travels from house to house selling sausages, and is also provided with a portable oil stove with which he will cook the sausages when requested to do so. He has already built up a good business.

THE ASSESSMENT OF RAILROADS.

From the data at hand it is difficult to determine the exact change made by the Board of Assessors and Equalization in the valuation of railroads. The Carson Appeal says the roads were assessed as follows:

Central Pacific, main track, $14,000; side track, $3,000.

Virginia & Truckee, main track, $12,750; side track, $2,500.

Carson & Colorado, main track $3,400; side track, $1,500.

Eureka & Palisade, main track, $3,500; side track, $1,500.

Nevada, California & Oregon, main track, $2,000; side track, $1,000.

Nevada Central, main track, $2,800; side track, $1,500.

Ruby Hill, main track, $3,100; side track $1,500.

The News says the N. C. O. was assessed at $3,100, and in this differs from the Appeal, but both agree that the increase in the assessment of the Central Pacific valuation is $674,870 34.

The figures relating to the Central Pacific railroad, as published by the News and Appeal, show that the increased valuation of the main track, as compared with 1890, amounts to $1,379,760, not $674,870 34, as they state, according to the Controller's report for 1890. This main track was assessed in 1890 at an average rate of $10,924 60 per mile, the total valuation being $4,902,740. This year the assessment is $14,000 per mile, aggregating $6,282,920, or $1,380,180 more than last year. There are 44½ miles of sidetrack, which was assessed in 1890 at an average of $5,150 80 per mile; this year at $3,000 per mile, making a reduction in side track valuation of $98,700.

The Virginia & Truckee railroad main track comprising 51½ miles, was assessed last year at $400,088, an average of $9,055 71 per mile; this year at $12,750 per mile, an increase of $160,122. The side track, of which there are 25.94 miles, was assessed last year at $2,702 19 per mile; this year at $2,500 per mile, a reduction of about $5,000.

The Carson & Colorado road, of which there are 192 miles of main track, was assessed last year at $576,000, or $3,000 per mile; this year at $3,400 per mile, an increase of $86,800. The 7½ miles of side track on this road was assessed at $1,500 per mile, the same as last year.

The N. C. O. railroad, of which there are 28.15 miles in this State and county, was assessed last year at $2,000 per mile, and this year at $2,100 per mile, and the side track, of which there is three-fourths of a mile, at $1,000 per mile.

The Nevada Central road of which there are 98 miles of main track, was assessed last year at $2,000 per mile, and this year at $2,300 per mile. The side track is valued the same as last year at $1,500 per mile; the increase in the assessment of the road being $27,000.

The 84 miles of main track of the Eureka & Palisade road, assessed last year at $3,000 per mile, was increased to $3,500 per mile, or $42,000 more on the total valuation, and the 2½ miles of sidetrack, assessed last year at the same valuation as the main track, was reduced to $1,500 per mile.

The depots, round-houses, coal and wood sheds and machine shops, are assessed by the assessors of the counties in which they are situated.

As the State tax has been reduced from 90 cents to 75 cents on each $100 valuation, the increase in the actual tax to be paid by the several roads will not, except in the case of the Central Pacific, materially differ from that of 1890.

THE STATE FAIR.

The Seventh Annual Fair of the State Agricultural Society, closed Saturday evening. It was creditable to the management and to the exhibitors, and, considering the dull times, was well attended. The live stock exhibit was never excelled nor equaled in Nevada, and it compared favorably with that of more pretentious States, in fact, no better displays of thoroughbreds are seen west of the Rocky mountains. The races in point of speed, were equal to any on the coast, and the best time in the records of the Society was made at the track. This was partly due to the purses offered being the best of any association on the Coast.

At the Pavilion the exhibits indicated what is possible in the agricultural line in the arid region, the grain, fruit and vegetables being equal and in some respects superior to those of the Mississippi Valley. The specimens of ladies' hand-work and the displays made by artists and merchants showed that the luxuries as well as the necessities of civilized life can be procured in Nevada.

These annual Fairs, affording as they do, an opportunity for farmers, stockmen and mechanics, to exhibit their products, should be patronized by the public and encouraged by the Legislature. The Fair should be a State holiday which all should observe by meeting together, exhibiting products and exchanging ideas as to the best methods of promoting the general welfare by improving the products of the State. At present the resources of the Agricultural Society will not admit of greater premiums than are offered. The Legislature should make more liberal appropriations, so as to enable the Society to at least pay the expenses incurred by successful exhibitors. A reasonable proportion of the State funds could not be expended more beneficially, as the result of such expenditure would be greater competition, larger exhibits and more general interest in the Fair. The climate and soil of Nevada are especially adapted to the growth of cereals and vegetables; its alfalfa fattened beef and mutton is superior to the corn-fed meats of Illinois and Iowa and its mixed breed horses are pronounced by experts the best for cavalry service in the United States, and Theodore Winters is proving that its thoroughbreds cannot be equaled for speed and endurance in the world.

A copy of a communication from Governor Thomas of Utah, Chairman of the National Executive Committee of the Irrigation Congress, to Hon. Francis G. Newlands, requesting the Governor of Nevada to call a State Irrigation Convention at an early day, has been received by the JOURNAL and will appear in its next issue.

BY TELEGRAPH!

The Jail Breakers.

Special to the Journal.

VISALIA, Cal., September 28.—George McKinley's team was found at Tulare City this evening at 6:45. This is the team in which Dalton Smith and Peck, the jail breakers are supposed to have left town. They had time to take the south bound train and are supposed to be making for Oklahoma. Jailer Williams says he locked the men in the cells at 5:30 P. M. last night, saw them go in the cells and turned the bolts then went in and turned the locks. This morning the nuts on the levers that turns the bolts to the cells were found loose, allowing the bolts to be pushed back, then an outside assistant had a key to unlock the cell doors, allowing egress to the corridor. With keys for the kitchen door and basement window an escape was easy.

The escape was made about 8:30 last night from present lights. The fugitives are undoubtedly on their way to Oklahoma. A search of the jail to-night discovered a knife blade filed for a saw, a whetstone a file and an iron bar sawed from the corridor.

Desperate Burglars.

Special to the Journal.

KOKOK, Iowa, September 28.—Great excitement prevails near Bowen, Ill., because of numerous burglaries in that and surrounding towns. The last one committed was at the store of J. V. Scott, who got out a search warrant for the house of Frank Jarvis and a man named Thresher. A Constable went to the house, whereupon Jarvis and his brother commenced shooting at him, one bullet inflicting a wound in the leg. Jarvis and his pals then escaped to a corn field, where they are now surrounded by the Sheriff and fifty armed men. It is said he will not be taken alive. The stolen goods had all been boxed up, and it is ascertained they were to be shipped to the relatives of one of the men in California. Late yesterday afternoon the desperadoes showed themselves, and several shots were exchanged. The Sheriff is determined to effect their capture if he has to starve them out.

Restoring the Indian Boy.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, September 28.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has received a copy of the recent opinion of Judge Green of the District Court of the Territory of Oklahoma, directing the restoration to the parents of the Indian boy placed in the Government Indian School at Chilocco by the officials. Judge Green held as the Indian Office had not issued, as required by the Act, rules and regulations to compel the attendance of Indian children at schools provided for them, the retention of the boy contrary to the will of his parents was illegal. The effect of this decision is regarded by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs as likely to prove prejudicial to the schools, and it is the intention to carry the case to the higher court. The Judge, in his opinion, took the ground that the right of the parent to the custody of his children belonged to the Indian as well as to the white man.

A Fatal Riot.

Special to the Journal.

CHICAGO, September 28.—At noon to-day two gangs of dock laborers, one white and one colored, got into an altercation on the Western Transit Company's docks while waiting to be paid off. James Kelly (white) was stabbed to the heart and killed by Jasper Bates (colored). Bates was pursued by the other white combatants who fired a number of shots after him, wounding him in the arm. Two other persons were wounded by the bullets. Bates was captured and locked up. Sandy Smith, the negro who started the riot, was terribly beaten by a mob and was rescued from lynching by the police just as a noose, which had been slipped around his neck, was being passed over a beam.

Jumped Overboard.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—A young man, name unknown, committed suicide this afternoon by jumping from the narrow guage ferry boat.

A Missing Woman Discovered.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The Chronicle's Eureka, Cal., special says: Mrs. Maillard, who disappeared from her home near San Rafael several weeks ago, was located in a logging camp near Fortuna last Friday. She is living in the camp with W. H. Ingram, hired man formerly employed by her husband. Ingram arrived at Fortuna September 4th, and Mrs. Maillard came September 7th. She acknowledged her identity to San Francisco detective. Ingram has since disappeared. When Mrs. Maillard first disappeared a reward of $1,000 was offered for information as to her whereabouts, by her husband and father, both wealthy men. A few days ago the offer was withdrawn and the San Francisco police who have been working on the case were told that Mrs. Maillard had been found by her friends in a demented condition.

A Destructive Fire.

Special to the Journal.

PHILADELPHIA, September 28.—The large warehouse of Jessup & Moore, occupied by A. C. Silbermann, agent for Armor & Co., is burning. The fire department is unable to check the fire. Thus far five firemen have been seriously injured by falling walls. One lad perished in the flames. The Water street walls have fallen in the street. Probably several people are buried under them. The fire has attacked the premises of George L. Flick 141, Ed Kennedy, groceryman, 145; George Wilkins, hop bailed, 134; G. Walworth & Son, cotton brokers, 146, North Front street. The loss will be $500,000.

A Child Poisoned.

Special to the Journal.

MARTINEZ, Cal., September 28.—Last Saturday afternoon Rudolph, the four-year-old son of Mrs. Spenser of this place, died suddenly and indications pointed to poisoning by strichine. A little dog about the place also died with the same symptoms, and it is believed the child and dog eat some poisoned meat placed out for rats or other vermin. No one, however, will confess to having exposed any poison. The contents of the child's stomach will be analyzed.

The Curtis Trial.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The trial of Maurice B. Curtis, (Sam'l of Posen) for the murder of Officer Grant, commenced to-day. Only three witnesses were examined; Mrs. Annie Johnson, Mrs. Jennie Holden and Miss Mamie Holden, gave testimony similar to that given by them before the coroner's jury. The case went over till next Saturday noon.

A Large Excess.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—The customs officials to-day collected $40,000 excess duties from Liebs Brothers & Co., cigar manufacturers of this city, who entered a large consignment of tobacco as Sumatra fillers, which were appraised by the customs officers as Sumatra wrappers. This is the largest amount of excess ever collected at this port from one firm.

A Destructive Storm.

Special to the Journal.

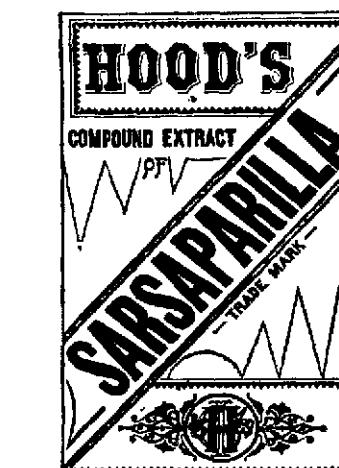

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., September 28.—A most destructive storm passed over the southern part of this and Beltrami counties telling an immense amount of pine timber and causing some loss of life. It is impossible to get particulars owing to the remoteness of the section. Whole townships are known to have been swept over.

A Fraudulent Importer.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—Barnard Reis, of the firm of Newberger & Reis, importers, was this afternoon arrested by the United States Marshal on a charge of entering goods at this port by fraudulent invoice. It is alleged that the firm imported woolen goods as cotton. Reis gave bail for $10,000.

MONTANA cattlemen have shipped 92,000 head of beves east this Fall, and will ship as many more before Winter sets in. The cattle average the stockmen $35 per head.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar curative powers. To itself other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists.

There seems to be a general desire of the part of the people to go to Carson some day during the week. As a courtesy we ought to tender them a visit which in numbers would be an earnest of our good will and kindly feeling for their industry and enterprise. They will give us a jolly reception.

There was a scrapping match Sunday between two sports which at one time threatened to end seriously. A gun was pulled, likewise the individual in whose hands it was. The matter was settled without arrest. The only person who suffered at all was an inebriated bystander who was unceremoniously bounced by the officers.

The Grand Jury made a partial report to the Court last evening, having found two indictments against Charles Bush and William Eastman, one for forgery and the other for uttering forged order purporting to have been signed by O. H. Lonkey, after which the jury adjourned subject to the call of the Foreman.

Notice is given that the incandescent electric light will be discontinued after the 8th instant. This is next to a public calamity. With the arc lights discontinued in the streets and the incandescent lights shut off in stores, hotels and private residences, Reno will certainly be in the dark. This ought to be averted if it is within the bounds of reason to do so.

The Sunday local for Carson was well filled with horsemen, sports and Renovites for the Carson Fair. The train consisted of two locomotives, 22 cars and 2 passenger coaches. The train did not reach Carson until 6 p. m., 2 hours late. It was met by the entire city, the Carsonites being collected in full force at the depot. Their fair promises to be a brilliant success. The town is fast filling up and they expect a grand time.

DISTRICT COURT.

The Business Transacted Yesterday—The Judge's Charge to the Grand Jury. Court convened at 10 o'clock yesterday. Besides the regular officers the following attorneys were present: Messrs. Boardman, Currier & Currier, Bowman, Woodburn and Mack of Virginia City, Baker and Dorsey, and C. D. Van Dazer, short-hand reporter.

The following named persons were impaneled as a Grand Jury: L. L. Crockett (Foreman), W. O. H. Martin, G. H. Taylor, R. S. Osburn, John Beitz, G. E. Peckham, R. W. Parry, J. W. Pothoff, W. H. Gould, Rossiter Jones, Louis Dean, Thomas Barnett, Benjamin Andrews, W. N. Knox, A. A. Evans, I. N. Bakerless and W. D. Wager.

JUDGE CHENEY'S CHARGE.

Judge Cheney delivered the following charge to the Grand Jury:

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND JURY: The provisions of the statute which I have read and the oath which you have taken indicate the general nature and extent of your powers and duties. All of your proceedings should be marked with the strictest secrecy, except as disclosed by your official reports to the Court. No member of the Grand Jury, should in any way, except as a witness, disclose what has been said in the Grand Jury room by any member or any witness. You are each under a solemn obligation not to report, or publicly or privately talk about what takes place during your sessions. This injunction of secrecy is for the public as well as your own individual welfare. The public has no right to know what a groundless charge has been preferred and investigated, for thereby great wrong and suspicion might be cast upon an innocent person; and it has no right to know what your individual action was, thereby saving yourselves from all inducement to be governed in your action by the consequences which might result to yourselves, either to your advantage or injury, if it was known how you had voted on any particular subject under investigation. All attempts by intercession, persuasion, intimidation or solicitations, outside of the jury rooms, to influence your action are unlawful, and it is your duty to report the same promptly to the Court. You will save yourself from exposure to such importunities by strictly observing the secrecy which the law exacts. Grand Jurors frequently and thoughtlessly, repeat what a witness has said while testifying before them. This you have no right to do. Neither he nor you can be compelled to answer and should not disclose such matters, except as witnesses, during the course of a judicial proceeding in which such matters are material.

All public offenses, except proceedings for the removal of a public officer, are prosecuted in this Court by indictment. Anciently, when the Grand Jury did not have the advice and attendance of the District Attorney to frame bills for them, matters were informally returned to the Court by presentation, and while the statute now speaks of presentations, the practice of making presentations has become almost entirely obsolete.

Ordinarily, gentlemen, a general charge is deemed sufficient, but there is one matter of such an extraordinary nature that I consider it my duty to call it at this time to your special attention and your duty to give it most serious consideration. It is a matter of public notoriety that, on the 18th of this month, one Ortiz, then apprehended and detained in the County Jail awaiting an examination upon a criminal charge not yet preferred, was, in the night time, forcibly taken by a body of armed and masked men from the custody of the Sheriff, without apparent contest, and publicly hanged until dead upon one of the streets of Reno. It is equally well known that full details of these unlawful proceedings have been reported by alleged eye witnesses and published, and that no steps were taken to pursue the jail breakers, recover the prisoner, prevent the murder or prosecute those implicated. A number of persons by common design have met and forcibly and unlawfully put to death a person without trial or investigation. They have set at defiance the only established means of ascertaining his guilt or innocence, and, considering themselves a tribunal for that purpose, have condemned a prisoner of the law to death, without trial, and carried the penalty into execution. Nothing could be more criminal in its nature or of greater danger to the security of life and property, which it is the object of laws to maintain. To admit that fifty or any number may do this, unpunished and unrebuted, is to admit that one person has the same right, to admit that every man may forcibly right his own wrongs, real or fancied, and may take the life of another whenever he thinks the public welfare demands it, or public sentiment will tolerate it. It is idle to attempt any justification of such conduct by proclaiming the desperate or worthless character of the deceased. Before the law, he, like any other person apprehended for crime, had certain rights. To admit that any one, or many, may deny him those rights is to admit that others may deny them to you or to me. It is for a jury of twelve men, under the responsibility of an oath, after indictment, investigation and trial, to pronounce a verdict of guilty, and for the law to enforce the penalty; not an unknown, irresponsible, self-constituted body of law-breakers. If a number of well meaning citizens can upon imaginary grounds of public welfare hang a supposed criminal, an equal number of criminals might upon the same imaginary ground hang whomsoever they choose to select. In each case the only established or lawful means of determining guilt or in-

Innocence has been supplanted by a body of unknown, unauthorized, irrepressible, self-constituted lynchers. The security of all lies in preserving inviolate such safeguards as in ascertaining the guilt of the criminal as are necessary for the protection of the innocent. Proceedings of this character are not only lawless and criminal, but tend to create a want of confidence either in the capacity or integrity of established tribunals. They cast a suspicion upon courts, officers and juries: they are a blight and stain upon the civilization of the age and the fair name of our community; they are in effect an advertisement of a false charge, viz: that jurors in Washoe county do not convict the guilty; they arraign the peace officers as unable to apprehend and bring to justice criminal offenders; they impugn the zeal of prosecuting officials; they question the impartiality of court; they set at defiance all law, order and security; they are a cloak which the criminally inclined will speedily wear; they are subversive of every form of good government and destructive of security to property or protection for life. Before the law the hanging or Ortiz was nothing less than murder, and it is the duty of all law abiding citizens to raise their hands and voices against these lawless proceedings. To permit them to pass unheeded and unpunished, if it is possible to ascertain who are the guilty persons, is to make ourselves sympathizers and accessories with crime. The law enjoins, and your oaths declare that you diligently inquire and true presentment make of all public offenses, triable within this county, of which you have or can obtain legal information, and this you should do fearlessly, honestly, indus-triously and impartially.

The demurser in the case of the Golden Fleece Mining Company was overruled and the defendant given ten days to answer.

The case of Datta vs. Gammons, owing to the absence of material witness for the defense, was continued until October 12th.

THE HORN CASE.

The Second Trial to Commence This Morning.

The Horn case comes up for a second trial this morning. The first trial, which ended on July 18th, resulted in a disagreement. It is thought, from the great publicity already given this case, that there will be some difficulty experienced in getting a jury. The defense will be represented by Baker, Wines, Dorsey and Currier; the prosecution by the District Attorney and Hon. William Woodburn. Wm. Pinkerton, the head of the Pinkerton Agency, will be here himself to listen to the proceedings. Mr. Horn is one of Pinkerton's most trusted operatives.

Round Trip Tickets to Carson.

The annual fair of Agricultural District No. 1, comprising the counties of Storey, Ormsby and Douglas, commences at Carson City, Monday, September 28th, and ends Saturday, October 3d, 1891. Tickets to Carson and return will be on sale at the railroad ticket office at Reno during the week, commencing Sunday, September 27th, and void if presented for passage after Sunday, October 4th, 1891, $2; children twelve years $1.

The residents of Storey, Ormsby and Douglas counties are taking unusual interest in this fair. Ormsby county has erected a large and commodious exhibition hall, and everything promises a most prosperous meeting.

WOMEN PROFESSORS.

What is there so incongruous in a woman professor in universities, where men are educated with women? This is the question Mrs. M. Louise Thomas and others are asking, who are trying to raise funds to endow a woman's chair in a northern university. Why is it that a woman teacher is deemed so necessary through all the grades, from the primary to those of the graduating class of the high school, and yet she should be deemed so pernicious and disastrous in colleges? Whether these are good reasons or not, the experiment is to be given a fair trial, for very recently the bill providing for a woman professorship at the State University of Michigan has become law.

Not far behind comes the news also that the University of Denver, which numbers about 800 students, has conferred on a woman the honor of naming an important professorship after her—that of literature—to be known hereafter as the Mary Lowe Dickinson chair of belles lettres, which chair has just received an endowment from ex-Governor John Evans the sum of $30,000.—Brooklyn Eagle.

HOW THE HILLBILLY TURN TAIL.

It is possible that before our soldiers get to close quarters with the enemy they will see the latter "turn tail." Let them not be deceived! Turning tail is what the hillbilly turn to what it is with us. The inhabitants of one group of villages, the Rengman, are noticeable for wearing a caudal appendage. This, of course, is not natural. It is fashioned of wood, eighteen inches long, curved upward, tapering to a point.

This is fitted to the back, being suspended from the shoulders and secured in position by a sash, which is tied tightly around the waist. This singular appendage is worn in battle, and is intended to signify defiance. WHERE GENIUS TIRES.

At one of the table d'hôte dinners of the Fellowcraft club one man said: "I know that your device might be the verse of Eviradus, 'Without ever being absent or saying I am tired.' You write five or six columns every day. Tell me this, is literary work tiresome or is it not?" The other replied: "Not to the mind. It is nothing to unroll the arabesques of fantasy, but the bending over one's paper and the guiding of one's pen give pains in the back." It reminded a third person of an interview with Sarah Bernhardt, when he asked, "In playing so many emotions, in affecting so much suffering, don't you feel terrible pains in your heart?" "Oh, no," she said sadly; "it's in the legs."—New York Times.
